

BERKS DRAFTEES LEAVE FOR CAMP NEXT MONDAY

County Boards Have Big Delegations For Maryland Cantonment

A TRAIN FROM POTTSVILLE

While the Reading and Berks county draft boards have not been officially notified, a schedule sent out from both 1 and No. 2 districts; from Harrisburg indicates that the remaining 20 per cent. of the drafted men will be on their way to Camp Meade the latter part of the month.

According to the schedule the men from the county district No. 1, Fleetwood, with 35 men, No. 2, Birdsboro, 40 men, and No. 3, Wernersville, 30 men, are to leave on Feb. 25. The Reading men are to leave on the same date. There will be 16 men from both No. 1 and No. 2 districts; 17 from No. 3, and 25 from No. 4.

This schedule shows that there are 74 men from the city and 105 from the county, a total of 179 men.

The men will leave on a special train at 10:30 a. m., starting from the coal regions.

William E. Wisser, of the Fleetwood district, has been sent home from Camp Meade because of physical disability.

Sent to Camp Greene.

The city district No. 1, Dr. Charles Roland, chairman, sent seven men to Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C., at noon on Saturday, and one man went to Camp Meade. The men who went served as volunteers. They were: Grover C. Koller, J. V. Dodge, John J. Roslin, Stanley Seibeck, Jacob Held, Irvin, George and Walter Wisner. They enter the artillery service. Robert Bechtel was sent to Camp Meade. The men reported at city hall for roll call at 10 a. m. and shortly after noon they boarded the train at the Franklin street station.

Six men were in the party who left from District No. 2 taking the 12.23 train for Camp Greene, all of whom enlisted voluntarily, not waiting for the draft call. They were Harry Weiss, Warren W. Rodgers, Bassett F. Balatine, Creston Landis, Chas. L. Dengler and Paul Haack.
